Dear Freada,

Thank you for the copy of your new book and your kind dedication. Your work to bring everyone onto America's playing field is vital to a renewal of hope in this country. As I travel from one coast to the other trying to engage our fellow citizens in creating the change we so desperately need, I cannot help but be inspired by the passion and commitment of this campaign's supporters. I am so grateful I can count you among that number.

Sincerely,

Barack Obama
